THE ORAH FUND

FUND DESCRIPTION

The ORAH Fund is a fund of funds aiming to produce risk-adjusted returns in excess of a composite benchmark comprising 50% of the MSCI World and 50% of the ASX 300 Index.

To achieve the Fund's objectives, the investment manager seeks to identify a set of specialist Underlying Funds that possess varied investment styles and strategies. This diversification is expected to result in reduced volatility and more stable returns over time. The Fund's investments are geographically diversified with the Underlying Funds investing in assets held both domestically and abroad.

The ORAH Fund was established in order to benefit charities supporting Jewish related causes, and all management and performance fees charged by the ORAH Fund are donated to charity. Importantly, the donations do not dilute the investment returns to unitholders. This is due to the philanthropy of the managers of the Underlying Funds who do not charge management or performance fees for their services.

PERFORMANCE
SUMMARY

The Fund generated a return of -2.3% (Class A) for the month compared to the benchmark which returned -2.0% over the same period.

The gloom surrounding markets continued into April resulting in one of the worst months in over a decade for risk assets. The Nasdaq recorded its worst monthly return since 2008 of -13.5% as growth equities were finally impacted by inflation, rising interest rates, and a slowdown in earnings. Stocks were also impacted by weakness out of China (the local CSI300 index ended -9.6%) with anxiety that supply chain issues, resulting from Shanghai having been in a COVID lockdown for over a month, could impact a rapidly slowing economy. With markets now largely desensitised to the Russian/Ukrainian war, European equities ended down -1.1% (MSCI Europe ex-UK) driven by uncertainty surrounding the French elections, inflation, and the path to increased energy independence from Russia. While Australian equities also fell (-0.8% for the ASX 300) due to the growth stock / tech unwind and reversal of materials, they outperformed globally with investors favouring defensive sectors including utilities and consumer staples.

HIGHLIGHT

The Fund benefited over the month from its absolute return focused underlying funds. We would like to highlight the Level 18 Fund, a long/short equity fund with a bias towards smaller capitalised listed Australian companies. The Fund typically invests in a portfolio of 30-50 companies. It has a focus on avoiding major capital drawdowns along with its broad investment mandate, having no limit on the level of cash it can hold or level of market exposure required.
